

KIMBEROSE

Her Name is Kimberly Kitson-Mills but everybody is calling her “Kimberose”.
She’s 26.

She writes her own lyrics and co-writes the Music of all of her songs.

Her father is English and her mother comes from Ghana in Africa.

She’s born and raised in the suburbs of London that she left 12 years ago to settle down in Chantilly - near Paris - where she’s still living today.

After some small experiences in the Trip Hop field and a short TV adventure in “La Nouvelle Star” (the French version of America got talent), she discovers the Music of Billie Holiday, Etta James, Nina Simone and Sam Cooke. She then decide to form her own band with Anthony on Guitar and Alexandre on Keyboard to play the Music she wants to listen to.

After a couple of Magical concerts last year, her first EP will be released on the 6th of October 2017 and her first album in early 2018.
